PATRIOT RAILROADED IN VERMONT

Integration Turns Capital's Schools Into Negro Jungle

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The ink was hardly dry on the Supreme Court's de-segregation decree of last year when Eisenhower, with fatuous zeal, ordered Federal authorities in the District of Columbia to effectuate the decision without delay. Washington, D.C., pontificated Ike, was to be a "pilot model" for the rest of the country, and particularly the South, to follow.

This month the authoritative U.S. News & World Report (June 10) gave Americans an on the spot summary of how this "pilot model" of de-segregation is working. It wasn't a very pretty picture.

Three out of five of the District's student enrollment is now colored, the report showed. White enrollment is down from last September, with further declines in prospect as white families flee to neighboring suburbs in Virginia and Maryland, where

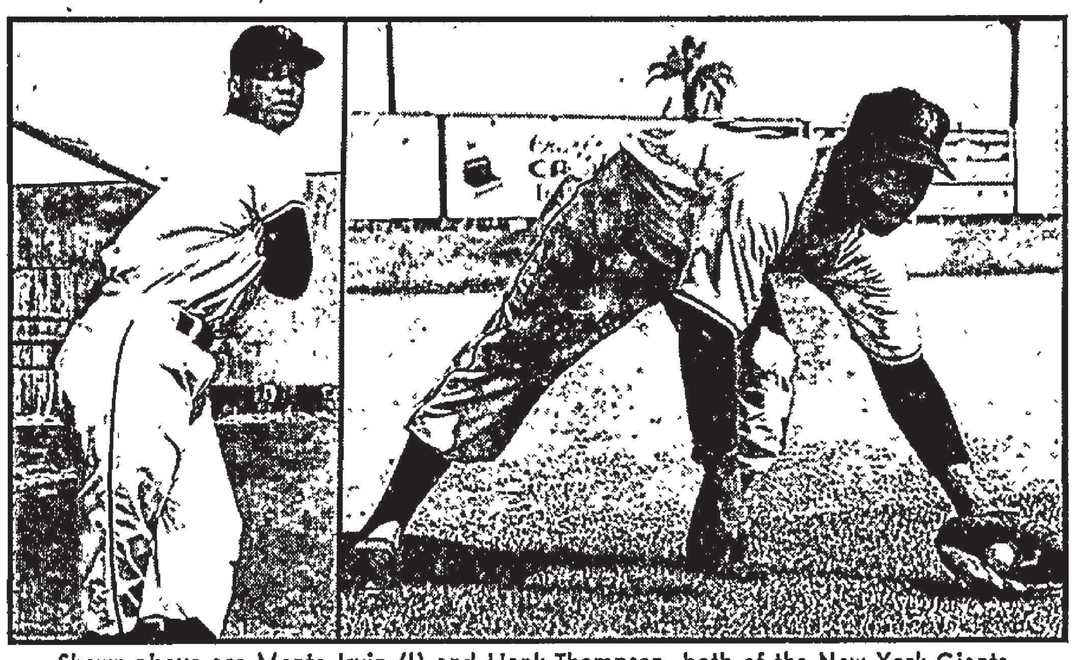
Multi-Billion Dollar Jewish Underground Hit

SPECIAL—In the ten years since World War II, American Jews have raised more than $2-300,000,000 for "Jewish activities" in this country and abroad. That is the boast of columnist Boris Smolar, who makes a specialty of reporting on Jewish "communal affairs", and whose syndicated column appears as a regular feature in Jewish newspapers throughout the country.

According to columnist Smolar, this figure does not include an additional $160,000,000 raised in this country through Israel bond drives, nor does it take into account the $65,000,000 Israel loan raised by United Jewish Appeal last year. When the latter two items are added, the total Jewish expenditure since World War II exceeds 2½ billion dollars—and this does not cover many local Jewish activities, nor those strictly religious in character. . .



Shown above are Monte Irvin (l) and Hank Thompson, both of the New York Giants. Since organized baseball was thrown open to Negroes eight years ago there has been a veritable revolution in what was once America's favorite sport. Gone are the great baseball heroes of yesterday like Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb and a host of others. They have been replaced by Negro idols such as Willie Mays, Jackie Robinson and Monte Irvin. The result may or may not have been beneficial for Negroes, but of one thing there is no doubt: it wasn't beneficial for baseball. . .

Major League Baseball Goes Into Decline As Negro Players Signed On

SPECIAL—Considerable speculation is rife in sporting circles as to why the great national sport of baseball is losing its place in American life. The game which was a national pastime only a few short years ago, and which attracted the imagination of millions of hero worshipping youngsters of past generations, is now losing out to space patrol comics and "Captain Video" television programs. The plain fact is that baseball has lost its appeal to American youngsters; it is no longer America's favorite sport.

This spectacular drop in popularity is particularly in evidence at the box-office. Attendance is steadily declining, receipts are down, and in desperation several major league teams have shifted their base of operations to new territory in an effort to pep up interest. Thus the St. Louis Browns are now the Baltimore Orioles, the Philadelphia Athletics have become the Kansas City Athletics, while the Boston Braves now play out of Milwaukee as the Milwaukee Braves. These moves seem to have spurred local attendance in the cities affected, but the overall picture remains dark for baseball. The industry is obviously hurting where it hurts the worst: in the pocket book. . .

Although the so-called experts are puzzled by baseball's steady decline in popularity, there is in reality no mystery about it at all. The truth is that baseball, like many other American sports, has been invaded and taken over by Negro athletes. Gone are the great heroes of yesteryear like Rogers Hornsby, Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb and Joe Dimaggio. They have been superceded by Negroidal idols such as Jackie Robinson, Willie Mays, Roy Campanella, Monte Irvin and others.

NO ACCIDENT

This Negro intrusion into America's favorite sport did not happen by accident. It was planned and contrived by the very same groups and organizations which are actively promoting "integration" in every other phase of American life. One of those organizations was the Communist Party, which set up a special "committee" as a means of pressuring major league teams into accepting Negro players. Partly as a result of this pressure, and partly in response to artificially induced "public demand", the Jew-ridden Brooklyn

Denied Jury Trial By Federal Judge As Protest Grows

BETHEL, VT.—You may have read of Lucille and Manuel Miller in your hometown newspaper last month. The story was about Manuel Miller of Bethel, Vermont, who held more than a score of state troopers at bay with a rifle for twelve hours before surrendering his wife to Federal authorities, who had come to take her to a mental institution in Washington, D.C. But unless you read Westbrook Pegler's column, or the Chicago Tribune, or the Tulsa Tribune, or a few other courageous papers scattered throughout the country, the chances are 100-to-1 that you did not get the real story of what happened in Bethel, Vermont on May 3rd. The story of Lucille and Manuel Miller is one to make every patriot's blood boil with outraged indignation. It's a story of raw courage and selfless patriotism and it deserves to be told.

THE MILLERS

Manuel and Lucille Miller are the parents of three school age children, ages 10 to 11 (the younger two being twins). Manuel Miller is well thought of in

Jew Pressure Mounts For U.S.-Israel Defense Treaty

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The news has been kept out of the press, but a powerful drive is underway to conclude a unilateral mutual defense treaty between the U.S. and Israel sometime this summer — while Congress is in recess. Jewish propagandists are trying to ease the way for such a treaty by arguing that the U.S. has already signed numerous defense pacts with other countries, including "fascist" Spain. But left unsaid is the very pertinent fact that virtually all these other treaties were patterned as defense against Soviet Russia, while the sole purpose of a defense pact with Israel would be to underwrite a new

Editor's Report

WESTBROOK PEGLER in our estimation deserves a medal of honor for his magnificent series on the Lucille Miller case. His dynamite-laden articles broke the story wide open. . . Incidentally, since Wm. Randolph Hearst's death, some Hearst papers censor Pegler's hotter items, which explains why his column is occasionally missing from the editorial page.

YOU MAY have received literature from a letterhead organization calling itself the National Renaissance Party within recent weeks. It is well written, well printed and has the appearance of genuine Nationalist material. But you are cautioned against having anything to do with either the organization or its promoters, the chief of whom was (and may still be) a Jewish agent. The so-called National Renaissance Party, whose membership probably never exceeded a dozen, was taken over some time ago by an agent-provacateur of the sinister Anti-Nazi League by the name of Mana Tru-Hill (Trujillo). Trujillo proceeded to turn out some of the most inflammatory "Nazi" and "Fascist" propaganda ever seen in this country—so infiammatory in fact as to attract the attention of the Un-American Activities Committee, which exposed him as a former trainee of a Communist school. While some may find it difficult to believe that a Jewish organization such as the Anti-Nazi League would actually finance and distribute anti-Jewish propaganda, the facts in this case cannot be disputed. As a paid agent of the Jewish Anti-Nazi League Trujillo used the National Renaissance Party as a Trojan horse to discredit and compromise the Nationalist movement. Our advice is to stay away from this outfit, no matter what their current line is. They're not Nationalists.

ADMIRERS of former Senator Jack B. Tenney will be pleased to learn that he has set up a private law practice in Los Angeles. Every Nationalist is urged to throw whatever legal business they have (no matter how large or small it may be) to Tenney. Few men have sacrificed more for this cause. Keep his address and phone number handy: 2875 Glendale Blvd., Los Angeles 39. (Phone NOrmandy 4-2989.)

WE MISTAKENLY labeled a picture of Ferenc Nagy as that of Imre Nagy in our last issue. The confusion was due to the fact that Communist Hungary has had two premiers named Nagy (both puppets of party boss Matyas Rakosi) since World War II.

INTER-RACIAL SCHOOLS

segregation is still maintained. Negro enrollment, meanwhile, continues to increase. . .

INTERRACIAL JUNGLE

The swamping of the District's white schools with hordes of dull-minded Negroids has, as predicted, turned Washington's school system into an interracial jungle. Scholastic standards are nose-diving, discipline is an almost insurmountable problem, and social activities are impossible.

SCHOLASTIC CHAOS

Lowered scholastic levels, according to U.S. News & World Report, are particularly disturbing to Washington educators. "The biggest surprise to educators", reported U.S. News, "was the wide gap between white and Negro educational levels. Negro schools in Washington had the same curricula as the white schools, and were supposed to be their equal. Yet it was found that a large proportion of Negro students were far behind the aver-

Hollywood

INGRID BERGMAN, long touted as a Scandanavian actress, is in reality . . . "of Jewish birth", according to the Jewish Telegraph Agency's film columnist, Leon Gutterman. Incidentally, quite a number of other allegedly Nordic actors and actresses, including Marlene Dietrich, Victor Borge, Marta Toren and Hedy Lamar, are of the same tribal origin.

KIRK DOUGLAS (Isadore Demsky) was the featured speaker at a dinner given in his honor at Albany, New York recently. According to the Jewish Telegraph Agency's account, "Douglas" . . . "brought tears to the eyes of the women, and cheers from the hundreds of diners" with a tale of his . . . "early days of poverty and gradual climb to success". Hollywood's Yiddish actors, please notice, always weep over their heartbreaking struggle for success if given half an opportunity. And the greater their wealth and fame, the deeper and more piteous the wail. Eddie Cantor, George Jessel and Sophie Tucker are among the more obnoxious examples, but there is hardly a big name Jew in Hollywood who has not at one time or another tugged the public's heart strings with a weepy recitation of his sufferings on the road to fame and fortune. The spectacle of one of these privileged Jews, rich and famous beyond description, whining about his imagined hardships and tribulations would be comical were it not for the fact that the Gentiles never seem to catch on. . .

THE COMEDY TEAM of Martin and Lewis is, from all reports, destined to split up soon. Jerry Lewis (Levitch), the Yiddish half of the combination (Martin is Italian) is pictured by the Hollywood press claque as being hurt but brave over the break-up.

MARTIN & LEWIS

ED SULLIVAN'S weekly TV presentation, TOAST OF THE TOWN, enjoys two unique distinctions which place it in a class by itself so far as current television fare is concerned. It is, first of all, one of the highest budgeted productions in the industry—a convenience which enables Sullivan to command some of the biggest names in the entertainment world as guest performers. And secondly, it is more consistently and slavishly devoted to the interracial theme than any other program on the air today. A week seldom passes that Sullivan does not feature one or more Negroidal performers, several of whom (like Eartha Kitt and Pearl Bailey) have appeared six or seven times on his stage. This has inspired some cynics to dub Sullivan's weekly hodge-podge as "Ed Sullivan's Negro Opportunity Program". . . By the way, TOAST OF THE TOWN is sponsored by the Ford Motor Company, and every time you buy a Ford, Lincoln or Mercury product—either new or used—you are subsidizing the Ford Foundation, which receives a very large slice of every dollar netted by the Ford Company. . .

DORE SCHARY last month delivered a speech in New York which gladdened the hearts of many a dispirited Comrade. Under the heading, "Dore Schary Calls for Fight-Back Against the Witchhunters", the communist organ, PEOPLE'S WORLD exulted: "New winds are blowing across the country and they're being felt even in the top rungs of the movie industry. Dore Schary, executive vice president of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, speaking at a conference of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith at the Waldorf Astoria, made one of the strongest speeches heard from a movie mogul in years. Schary spoke out against McCarthy type congressional committees, 'loyalty' oaths, book banning, conformism and red scares. He called for more aggressive action against thought control and witchhunting. And more courage on the part of those who are disturbed by what is happening but who hesitate to speak out".

No one can accuse Schary, who has been cited by the Un-American Activities Committee for membership in four Communist-front organizations, of not practicing what he preaches. His latest "message film", BLACKBOARD JUNGLE (all about interracial schools) is proof of that. For our money, we think Mr. Schary and his Yiddish compatriots should concentrate on putting more entertainment, and less propaganda, in their motion pictures.

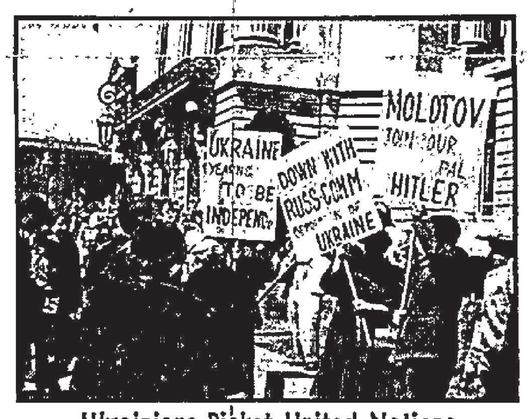
United Nations

The following on-the-spot report is based upon personal observations made by Frank L. Britton during the recent United Nations celebration in San Francisco.

✓At home you may have gotten the impression from the television and newspaper coverage that all San Francisco turned out in honor of the U.N. celebration. Actually there was relatively little evidence of enthusiasm in the Golden Gate city. Except for the block around the War Memorial Opera House, the city did not even hang decorations—although it provided ample police protection. Nor, with scattered exception, did the city's merchants display U.N. decorations. Crowds ranging from a few hundred to two or three thousand did turn out, but on the whole public response was insipid. Mainly it was a propaganda show.

✓Notably absent from the proceedings were any candidates for public office. No outstanding member of either house of Congress was present—which would seem to indicate that most of them regard a close identification with the U.N. as poison at the polls. Anyway, they were conspicuously absent. . .

✓Although the newspapers and radio networks generally suppressed the news, pickets were very much in evidence (see cut).



Ukrainians Picket United Nations

Ukrainian pickets protesting the enslavement of their people by Communist Russia were particularly active. Anti-United Nations pickets were also on the scene. . .

✓One nauseating sidelight at San Francisco was the use of American G.I.s as chauffeurs and flunkies for the U.N. crowd. Spanking new cars, each with U.N. license plates and flag, and each with a uniformed G.I. driver, were placed at the disposal of the one world set throughout the meet.

✓Several opposition rallies protesting the U.N. celebration were staged by Gerald Smith's Christian Nationalist Crusade at the Marine Memorial Auditorium and at the St. Francis Hotel. Although given the silent treatment by the press, no serious attempt was made to interfere. The St. Francis hotel did, however, cancel arrangements for a later meeting when it learned Smith was to speak. . .

Railroaded To Asylum Without Trial

his community. He is justice-of-the-peace in Bethel, a town of 800 inhabitants in central Vermont. He is also trustee of the local school board, and for several terms was re-elected as one of Bethel's three "selectmen"—a New England version of a city councilman. Few men are more highly regarded in this quiet New England town than Manuel Miller. And yet today he is awaiting trial before a Federal Court—because he dared to resist Federal officers who came to take his wife off to a distant asylum without benefit of trial. . .

LUCILLE MILLER

Lucille Miller, together with her husband, is the editor of a small, though generally well written mimeographed periodical known as the "Green Mountain Rifleman". It is a patriotic journal devoted almost entirely to fighting and exposing Communism. During the past few years she has been particularly active in exposing the activities of a "colony" of Communists and Communist sympathizers (mostly Jews) who have taken up residence in Bethel and the nearby village of Randolph Center. As a result of her disclosures, Westbrook Pegler was attracted to the situation several years ago and gave it considerable publicity in his column. Senator McCarthy also took note of the matter in a speech on the Senate floor at the time.

MARXIST COLONY

The Communist "colony" at Randolph Center spotlighted by Lucille Miller consisted of some of the biggest names ever to be identified with the Communist conspiracy in this country. They included:

✓Lee Pressman, former chief labor counsel for the CIO. . .

✓Nathan Witt, former general secretary of the National Labor Relations Board. . .

✓John Abt, former key attorney for the SEC, AAA and WPA. . .

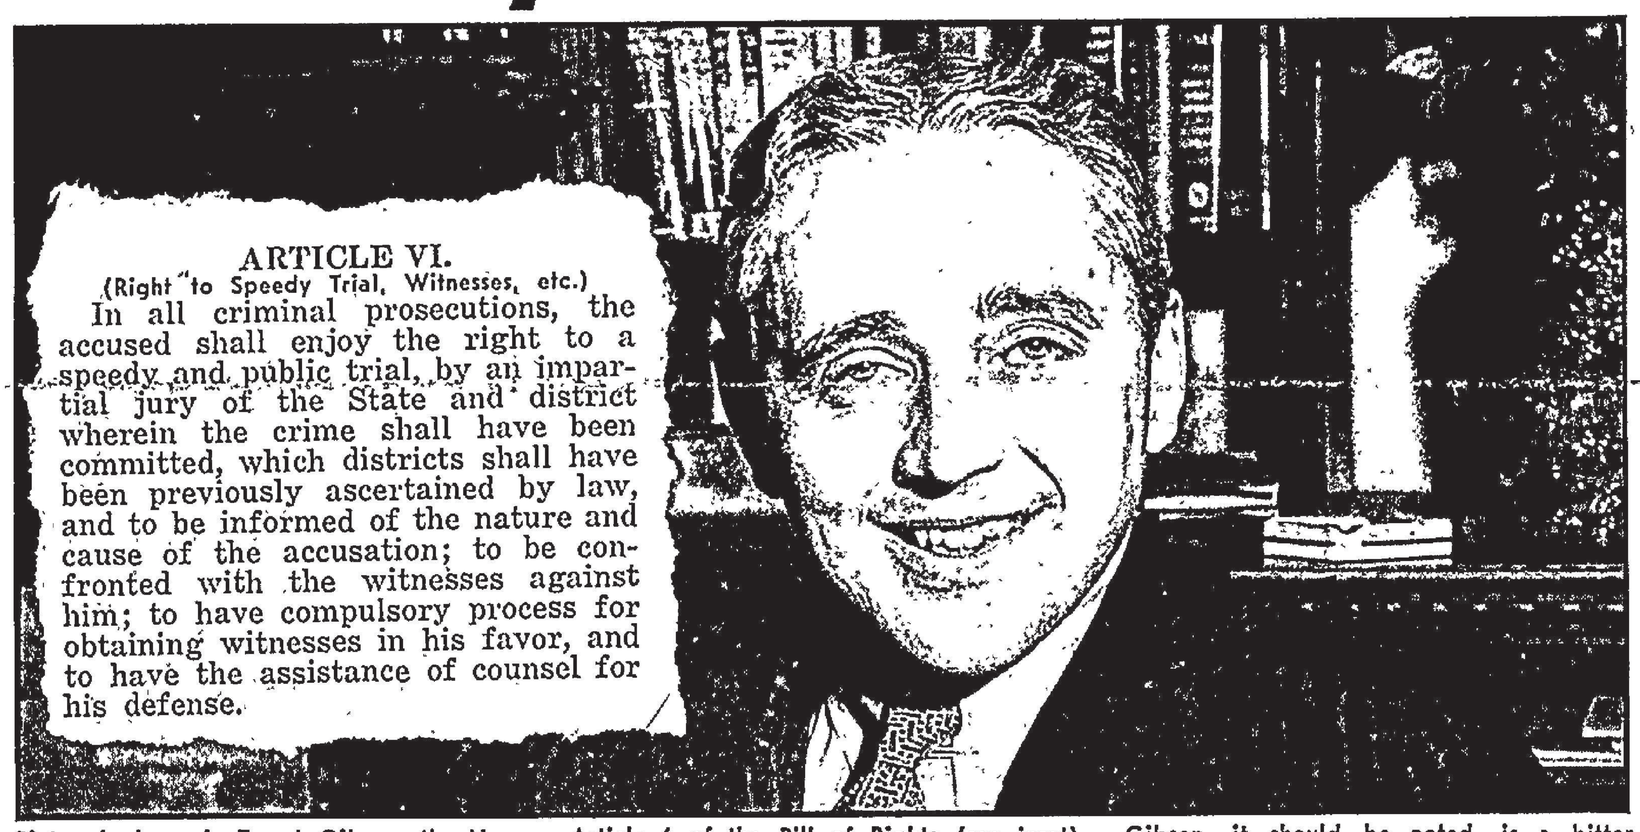
✓Marian Bachrach, once indicted for conspiracy to overthrow the U.S. government. . .

✓Owen Lattimore, currently under indictment for perjury in relation to his pro-Communist activities. . .

There were many others, but anyone familiar with the Communist conspiracy in this country will instantly recognize that most of the above named individuals held high positions in both the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, and that they wield vast hidden influence in Washington today. It is important to note the latter, because someone in Washington used influence, and lots of it, to "get" Lucille Miller after she drew national attention to the fact that some of the country's most notorious Communists and fellow travelers were colonizing rural Vermont. . .

JUDGE GIBSON

The immediate circumstances leading to Lucille Miller's arrest and shameful incarceration can be given in a few sentences;



ARTICLE VI.
(Right to Speedy Trial, Witnesses, etc.)
In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which districts shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

Pictured above is Ernest Gibson, the New-Deal appointed federal judge who recently sentenced Lucille Miller to an insane asylum without benefit of trial. Gibson apparently has little or no acquaintance with Article 6 of the Bill of Rights (see inset) which specifies that . . . "In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury" . . . Gibson, it should be noted, is a bitter personal enemy of Lucille Miller, and his refusal to let her stand trial on the charges for which she was indicted was hardly motivated by concern for her welfare.

She was arrested on Feb. 23rd on charges of obstructing the Selective Service Act. She was brought into a Federal Court presided over by one Ernest Gibson, a bitter personal enemy with whom she had feuded for years, and who once before had caused her to be arrested on a contempt charge. Gibson, incidentally, is well known in Vermont for his left-wing proclivities. . .

DEMANDS TRIAL

Lucille Miller demanded a prompt trial, announced that she would serve as her own attorney, and stated her contention that the Selective Service Act is un-Constitutional. Judge Gibson's reaction was to commit her to an insane asylum for "observation", and he subsequently followed this up by committing her to a Federal institution in Washington, D.C. until "cured"—which could be for life. The case broke into front page news a few days later when Federal officers who came to take her away were met at the door by her husband, Manuel Miller, who held them off with a rifle for 12 hours until overcome by tear gas. Then, and only then, did they take Lucille Miller away.

ST. ELIZABETH'S

Lucille Miller was whisked off to the St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, D.C., hundreds of miles from her family and community, and far beyond the boundaries of her home state. There she was confined in the institution's violent ward, where she was thrown into intimate proximity with violently insane Negro prostitutes, deranged criminals, perverts and other individuals of like description. As a "patient" she was compelled to submit to conditions so nauseating as to almost defy description; conditions which would make imprisonment in a penitentiary seem infinitely mild and preferable by comparison; conditions so horrible as to test the sanity of a normal person unfortunate enough to be detained there. . .

SUDDENLY RELEASED

The story, fortunately, does not end there. Sixteen days after being committed to St. Elizabeth's violent ward, Lucille Miller was suddenly released by hospital authorities. Three days later, on June 27th, she again appeared in Judge Gibson's court for a sanity hearing. Gibson, who only a month previously had spitefully ordered her confined to a lunatic asylum without trial, this time scheduled a trial for her on the charges of obstructing the Selective Service Act—for which she was originally indicted. She is to stand trial on those charges in Gibson's court on July 16th, and it is a foregone conclusion that if she is found guilty, Gibson will again sentence her to a lunatic asylum rather than to prison. And unless her lawyers can succeed in having the case transferred to an impartial court, it is almost a certainty that Gibson will see to it that she is found guilty. From his past record it would be unreasonable to expect any other result . .

THE REAL CRIME

Manuel Miller, meanwhile, is also awaiting trial on charges of resisting a federal officer as an aftermath of the 12 hour tear gas siege of his home on May 3rd. And while there is no doubt that he is in technical violation of the law, the fact remains that if a criminal act was committed in this case, it was committed by Gibson, not by Manuel Miller. It is Gibson, rather than Miller, who rightfully deserves to be brought before the bar of justice. . .

UNFINISHED STORY

This, then, is the story of one man and one woman who dared to stand up for what they believe is right. It is a story which is as yet unfinished. It will remain unfinished until such time as Lucille Miller is given a fair trial, in open court, before an impartial judge and jury, on the charges for which she was originally indicted. It will remain unfinished until the heroic Manuel Miller is exonerated of the charges against him.

TRAITORS HOLIDAY

As for the Communist conspirators and fellow travelers exposed by the Millers: they continue to run free. None have been arrested, none have been imprisoned. Except for Owen Lattimore, who is currently under indictment for perjury, not a single one is in jeopardy of any kind. Such is the quality of justice in our Federal Courts today.

SIGNIFICANCE: Americans might well wonder why the rights of Communist traitors are so jealously protected—even to the point of absurdity—by our Federal courts and the Justice Department, while the rights of those who expose them are callously ignored. But there is more to be learned from the Miller case than that. The truly horrifying thing about it all is that an American citizen can be indicted on a political charge, or at least a charge having political implications, and then thrown into a mad house (perhaps for life) without benefit of trial. For make no mistake about it, were it not for the outcry raised by thousands of patriots all over the country at the vicious treatment meted out to Lucille Miller, she would never have received a trial at all; she would have remained locked up in the violent ward of St. Elizabeth's indefinitely.

It is high time that Americans took stock of the judicial procedures that will permit a citizen to be incarcerated under such conditions upon the mere say so of a Federal judge of Gibson's calibre. Every school boy knows that such procedure is clearly in violation of the Constitution, which guarantees that EVERY accused person shall enjoy due process of law. And as every school boy also knows, that includes the right to a trial by jury—and before an impartial judge. Even Gibson ought to know that.

NEGRO BASEBALL

Dodgers signed on their first Negro player, Jackie Robinson, in 1947. Robinson, whose reputation as a racist trouble-maker both on and off the playing field is well known, was followed by a parade of other Negroes, all of whom have been glorified by extravagant press agentry and propaganda as no white player ever was.

PHONY ACCLAIM

It is impossible to even speculate upon the amount of artificial publicity these lionized Negro players have received, but if it were computed on a dollars and cents basis it would certainly run into tens of millions of dollars. Magazine articles without number have extolled their prowess on the field. Sports writers have raved over their unique "sportsmanship". Sob sisters have written up every detail of their family life. Radio, television, newsreels and newspapers have avidly reported their every word and action. A song was even written about Willie Mays (Say, Hey!), and a movie made of Robinson's "life story". The campaign to popularize the Negro in baseball is certainly without parallel in sports history.

The result may have been beneficial for a few individual Negroes, and it may have even sparked Negro attendance at the games. But it ruined baseball as a national sport. The promoters of professional baseball may not realize it yet, but when they attempt to substitute a buck Negro for a Babe Ruth, a Willie Mays for a Ty Cobb, a Jackie Robinson for a Joe Dimaggio, they are signing the death warrant of baseball. If you don't believe it, just check the gate receipts of the major league teams since they began hiring Negro players just eight years ago. . .

age white students—one to four grades behind, in the opinion of some school officials . . . A high percentage of Negro pupils will fail their courses this year. Where classes are divided for teaching purposes into groups of slow, medium and fast learners, there are few Negroes in the fast group, with a majority of Negroes in the slow group. Where intelligence tests have been given, the Negro average has been far below that of whites."

There is more of the same but this will suffice as an indication of what integration means in terms of educational standards. Propagandists for integrated schools are, of course, trying to blame this disparity upon "environmental factors", but this is merely a case of arguing which came first: the chicken or the egg. The plain fact is that Negroes are, on the average, far below whites in intellectual capacity and are incapable of competing with them in the classroom.

From a purely educational standpoint it is clear that integrated schools can only be maintained at the expense of lowering white educational levels drastically to accommodate the Negro's inferior mental capacity. But even under these conditions Negroes cannot successfully compete with whites of their own age group—a fact which has been well demonstrated in New York City's interracial schools. This means that older and more mature Negroids will inevitably be thrown into the same classrooms with younger white students. Quite aside from scholastic considerations, this poses a problem of major proportions, because it is the older and more aggressive pupil—not the younger and more intelligent—who dominates the playground and the athletic field. And it is here, no less than in the classroom, that the child's character and habits are formed. . .

INTERRACIAL SOCIETY

There are, of course, other matters plaguing the parents of Washington's school children as a result of integration. Chief among these is the problem of protecting their teen-age daughters against the unwelcome attention of Negro youths. Another is how to deal with social situations such as interracial dances. These problems are by no means simple, for it is obvious that once Negroes have been brought into white schools, they cannot be denied "equality" with whites in any respect. Just what this involves may be gained from the following, which is also taken from the above mentioned U.S. News & World Report article:

"Still unsolved", said U.S. News, "is the question about school dances—with all the social problems they might create. No general school dances have been held this year in Washington's mixed schools. Principals considered this too touchy an area in which to attempt full integration as yet. They feared that an approach to a white girl by a Negro or a rebuff of a Negro by a white girl might set off a melee".

And so we are already witness to a situation where white girls in Washington's public school system do not dare rebuff the attentions of African suitors for fear of the consequences. Such is the outcome of the Supreme Court's shameful decree of last year; such is the situation in the capital city of the United States of America. . .

SIGNIFICANCE: Mr. Eisenhower's "pilot model" of de-segregation has served one useful purpose at least: it has removed any doubt from the minds of Southerners as to what they are up against. The fate of Washington, D.C. has made the South more determined than ever to resist compulsory mongrelization at any cost. This iron determination, incidentally, had stopped the de-segregation program in its tracks even before the Supreme Court delivered its weasel worded formula for integration where "feasible" last month. Except for a few large cities in the border states (i.e. Baltimore, St. Louis, Kansas City) there has been little or no integration anyway. And in the deep South there has been none at all, and public officials from the governors on down have made it clear that there will never be any, regardless of what the Supreme Court says. As Virginia's most respected newspaper, the RICHMOND NEWS LEADER summed it up last week: "When the court proposes that its social revolution be imposed upon the South 'as soon as practicable', there are those of us who would respond that 'as soon as practicable' means never at all".

It will be a long time before the South delivers its children over to the fanatics who would make Washington, D.C. a "pilot model" for total mongrelization. . .

Press Report

NEW YORK—The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith has given this year's "Democratic Legacy Award" to the nation's three largest tax exempt "philanthropic" foundations, according to Jewish press reports. Recipients of the award were the Rockefeller Foundation, the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation, who were cited for "their encouragement of social, political and economic development that reinforces democracy under 20th century conditions". All three foundations were the subject of an intensive investigation last year by the Reece Committee because of their left-wing political activities.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The wire services have suppressed the story, but Mississippi's crusading Senator Eastland dropped a bomb-shell in the U.S. Senate on May 26th which will have repercussions for years to come. Senator Eastland publicly exposed the Communist-front records of the psychologists and social scientists which the Supreme Court cited as its authority in issuing the school de-segregation decree. The Supreme Court, in handing down its decision, named eight of these so-called "experts" all told. Senator Eastland revealed that no less than four of these had red front connections—one of whom (E. F. Frazier) had 18 red-front citations, while another had 10 such affiliations. He also revealed that several of the authorities referred to by the Court were employees of the N.A.A.C.P.—the chief litigant in the case. . .

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Ike Eisenhower, who year before last sat on the platform at an N.A.A.C.P. convention in Washington, and who last year delivered an address before the Anti-Defamation League, this year cancelled an appearance before the national convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mr. Eisenhower was "too busy" to attend.

SAN FRANCISCO—Close on the heels of the Supreme Court's recent "implementation" order concerning de-segregation of the nation's public schools, the N.A.A.C.P.'s West Coast regional director, Franklin Williams, came up with a formula of his own as to how de-segregation should be implemented. Williams told the "National Conference of Social Workers" in San Francisco that school segregation should be ended—"even if it means that Negro children are transferred to schools not close to their homes, and even if it means bringing white children into schools in districts that house primarily minority groups."

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The Eisenhower administration, which boasts of having advanced Negro "rights" more than any other administration in history, had one of its pet measures, the military reserve bill, blocked in the Congress for weeks because a colored congressman (Powell) insisted on tacking an anti-discrimination amendment to it. Powell's amendment would in effect have forced Southern states to "integrate" Negroes into National Guard units.

ISRAEL TREATY

Jewish war against the Arabs. Since such a treaty would add absolutely nothing to the free world's defense against Communism, and since it would unquestionably alienate the entire Moslem world, it is obvious that no one except Israel stands the slightest chance of benefiting from it. . .
